4. POLICY

All the Related Party Transactions and subsequent Material Modifications thereto proposed to be entered into shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company, provided that only those members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, shall approve related party transactions. The Audit Committee shall accordingly recommend the Related Party Transactions for the approval of Board of Directors / Shareholders as per the terms of this policy.

All transactions with Related Parties shall be in the ordinary course of business and at arm’s length. If any transaction with Related Party(s) is not in the ordinary course of business and/or not at arm’s length, then all such transactions will require prior approval of:

- a. the Audit Committee;
- b. the Board; and
- c. the shareholders of the Company by resolution, if they exceed the threshold limits mentioned u/s 188 of the Act read with Rules.

Further, any Material Transaction proposed to be entered into with a related party shall also be approved by the Board of Directors and Shareholders of the Company after they have been approved by the Audit Committee.

Procedure for dealing with Related Party Transactions:

4.1 Identification of Related Parties and Related Party Transactions

Before the start of each financial year, the Company shall seek required disclosures or information from Directors and/or Key Managerial Personnel to identify a related party, in such form or manner as per the Act / applicable laws, as amended from time to time and draw up a list of 'related parties' as prescribed under Section 2(76) of the Act read with the rules framed there under, Regulation 2(1)(zb) of the SEBI Listing Regulations and as defined under Indian Accounting Standard (IND AS) 24. Any changes in the list during the financial year shall be made as and when the Company receives information in this regard from the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel. For this purpose, the Company shall devise an appropriate procedural mechanism.

The Audit Committee, in consultation with the Company Secretary, will review and determine whether any Transaction with such Party(s) will, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this policy. Any member of the Audit Committee or Board who is directly or indirectly interested in any Related Party Transaction shall recuse himself and abstain from participating in the discussion and voting for such item under consideration by Audit Committee and Board, as the case may be.

4.2 Approval of Related Party Transactions

4.2.1 Approval of the Audit Committee

As mentioned above, all the Transactions proposed to be entered into with Related Parties and all subsequent Material Modifications thereto shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee, provided that only those members of the audit committee, who are Independent Directors, shall approve related party transactions.

Also, any related party transaction(s) to be entered into by the subsidiary of the Company to which transaction the Company is not a party shall require the prior approval of the audit committee of the Company if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transaction(s) during the financial year exceeds 10% of the annual Standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statement of the Subsidiary. Approval of the audit committee shall not be required for any transactions to be entered into by the Company with its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval. Further prior approval of the audit committee of the Company shall not be required for a related party transaction to which the listed subsidiary (if any) is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 of SEBI Listing Regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary.

In the case of the transactions which are repetitive in nature, a list of all proposed Transactions with the Related Party, shall be placed before the meeting of the Audit Committee before the beginning of each financial year. The Audit Committee may, after satisfying itself as to the need for granting such approval, provide an omnibus approval for each transaction with Related Party within which the transactions with the Related Parties should be executed during the year, Provided that where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and the required details are not available, the Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such Transactions subject to their value not exceeding ₹ 1 crore per transaction. Such omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approval after expiry of one year

The Audit Committee may call for such additional information as may be required for granting approval to such Transactions. Such omnibus approval shall specify;

(i) the name/s of the Related Party, nature of Transaction, period of Transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into,

(ii) the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and

(iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit..

Omnibus approval shall not be made for transactions in respect of selling or disposing of the undertaking of the Company.

If any additional Related Party Transaction is to be entered by the Company post omnibus approval granted by the Audit Committee, then the Company shall present such transaction before the Audit Committee in its next meeting for its prior approval.

4.2.2 Approval of the Board and the Shareholders

The Board shall approve such Related Party Transactions as are required to be approved under the Act and/or SEBI Listing Regulations and/or transactions referred to it by the Audit Committee.

1. In addition to the above, the following kinds of transactions with related parties shall also placed before the Board for its approval:

a) Transactions in respect of which the Audit Committee is unable to determine whether or not they are in the ordinary course of business and/or at arm's length basis and decides to refer the same to the Board for approval;

b) Transactions which are in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which in Audit Committee's view requires Board approval;

c) All the Material Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications thereto shall be considered and approved by the Board of Directors before the same are considered by the shareholders for their approval under Section 188 of the Act read with Rules made thereunder and SEBI Listing Regulations.

Where any director is interested in any Related Party Transaction, such director shall not remain present at the meeting during the agenda item(s) when Related Party Transactions is considered.

2. In Compliance with SEBI Listing Regulations, all the Material Transactions and all such Related Party Transactions exceeding the threshold limits prescribed in the Act shall require prior approval of the shareholders and the Related Party/ies shall abstain from voting on such resolution whether the Company is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

In case the shareholders decide not to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Board/ Audit Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or recession of the transaction, or modification of the transaction to make it acceptable to shareholders for approval.

Further prior approval of the shareholders of the Company shall not be required for a related party transaction to which the listed subsidiary (if any) is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 of SEBI Listing Regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary.

Prior approval of the Audit Committee (including omnibus approval) and shareholders approval will not be required as per the provisions of Regulation 23(2), (3) and (4) of SEBI Listing Regulations in case of transactions entered into by the Company with its wholly owned subsidiary as well as transactions between two wholly owned subsidiaries (if any), whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

4.3 Review of Related Party Transactions:

The Management shall lay down an appropriate framework including the pricing mechanism to ensure arm's length pricing for dealing with the Related Party(s). The Management shall institute appropriate administrative mechanism to ensure that all Related Party Transactions are in compliance and reviewed in accordance with these policies and procedures including maintenance of proper records in this regard.

All the transactions with Related Parties shall be referred to the Audit Committee for review at its scheduled quarterly meetings or as may be called upon by the Audit Committee from time to time along with all relevant information of such transaction(s) and related party transactions to which omnibus approval granted shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee on quarterly basis.

The Audit Committee may refer any of the Related Party Transactions brought before it or it being mandatory under any law, for approval of the Board. The Board may on its own accord also decide to review any Related Party Transaction. The above mentioned procedure as set out in clauses 4.1 to 4.3 of this Policy shall be followed by Board for considering and granting approval to Related Party Transactions.

The Audit Committee shall periodically review this policy and may recommend amendments, from time to time as it may deem appropriate, to the Board provided such policy shall be reviewed by the board of directors at least once every three years and updated accordingly.

The Audit Committee may seek advice of external consultants and experts on determining whether a particular transaction which is being considered by the Audit Committee would be regarded on an arms' length basis or otherwise.

5. DISCLOSURES

5.1. The Company shall disclose, in the Board's report, transactions prescribed in Section 188(1) of the Act with related parties, which are not in ordinary course of business or arm's length basis along with the justification for entering into such transaction or arrangement.

5.2 The Company shall also submit to the stock exchange disclosures of the related party transactions in the format as specified by the Board from time to time. Such Disclosures shall be submitted by the Company every six months on the date of publication of its standalone and consolidated financial results and the same shall be published on the Company's website.

5.3. As prescribed under Regulation 46(2)(g) of the SEBI Listing Regulations, this Policy shall be disclosed on the Company's website viz. www.rsrhramik.com.

6. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION NOT APPROVED UNDER THIS POLICY

In the event the Company becomes aware of a Transaction with a Related Party that has not been approved under this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee. The Committee shall consider all of the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction. The Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such Related Party Transaction to the Committee under this Policy, and shall take any such action it deems appropriate.

In any case, where the Committee determines not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without approval, the Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or rescission of the transaction. In connection with any review/approval of a Related Party Transaction, the Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

7. Miscellaneous

In case of any amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. issued by the relevant authorities, not being consistent with the provisions laid down under this Policy, then such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. shall prevail notwithstanding the provisions hereunder from the effective date as laid down under such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc.
