Encl.: as above

Annexure A

Sr. No.	Particulars	Details
1.	Industry or area to which the new line of business belongs	Bulk Molding Compound Industry (BMC). BMC is used in various industries like automotive, electrical, and construction due to its strength and design flexibility.
2.	Expected benefits	BMC is a versatile and cost-effective material, offering a balance of mechanical, thermal, and electrical properties. It is particularly valuable in industries where precision, durability, insulation, and cost-efficiency are critical. As the demand for lightweight, non-corrosive, and high-performance materials increases, BMC continues to find new applications in both traditional and emerging sectors.
3.	Estimated amount to be invested	Approximately Rs. 15 Crores will be invested in this product, or such other amount as may be amended by the Board of Directors from time to time.
